About Minori

Minori is a charming seaside town of just 3,000 residents, located in the heart of the Amalfi Coast, just 4km from Amalfi and 7km from Ravello.

A favorite holiday spot since Roman times, the Minori's history is reflected in the impressive remains of a 1st-century patrician villa; today, Minori is famous for its breathtaking landscapes, rich culinary tradition (it's called the "City of Taste"), and all-year mild climate.

Recognized as a UNESCO World Heritage Site since 1997, Minori offers authentic charm without the heavy crowds of larger towns, making it the perfect base to explore the coast.
